Soviet citizens repatriated from North China on board the steamer Gong were given the following instructions:

1. Their immediate destination was Nahodka (132-53, 42-47) rather than Vladivostok. [redacted] 25X1A
2. Although the trip from Tientsin would take only three days, the repatriates were to carry enough food to last them for ten days.
3. Upon their arrival at Nahodka they were to be prepared to exchange their wearing apparel for Soviet clothing so that they would not cause dissatisfaction by appearing in much better clothing than that worn by the citizens of Nahodka.
4. All their money was to be handed over to the Soviet Consulate in Tientsin and would be returned to them at Nahodka.
